

INAUGURATION MEMORIAL DES DISPARUS

Posté par Oranie - le 10 Septembre 2007 à 11:03

Bonjour Khader et tous les amis,

Un rendez-vous à ne pas manquer :

Pendant la guerre d'Algérie, avant et surtout après les Accords d'Evian, des milliers de Français d'Algérie, Harkis et militaires ont disparu, enlevés sans laisser de traces. Drames terribles qui pendant des décennies ont plongé les familles, les communautés dans des souffrances, des larmes et de terribles interrogations.

Pour que ce drame soit enfin connu de tous 1500 personnes et plus de 200 associations et amicales de Français d'Algérie se sont mobilisées pour participer à l'édification du Mémorial.

Cette union historique de notre communauté dans le souvenir de son passé le plus tragique, exprime parfaitement son soutien sans réserve au projet du Mur des Disparus.

Le 25 novembre 2007 à Perpignan plus de 4000 participants marqueront par leur présence à cette manifestation, leur solidarité avec les familles et leur communion avec les disparus.

C'est un droit naturel imprescriptible de tous les hommes de rendre hommage aux leurs. Ce lieu sera un endroit de recueillement, un tombeau symbolique.

... Hear Hear!It's ultimately a queoitsn of courage. When a people lay claim to a set of rigid values, there will come a point where it will take genuine courage to enforce them. It will be easier, and safer, to abandon those values, to be pragmatic about these matters. After all, you know what they say: the Constitution is not a suicide pact. Perhaps not. But it IS a collective agreement that what we believe is more important than our individual risk of harm, and that it is important enough that we are willing to readily assume whatever increased level of risk accrues from our steadfast belief in human rights and civil liberties.Among the things that were lost that brilliant late summer morning in 2001 was our courage. Actually, I suspect, it was lost sometime much earlier, in the decades of peace and wealth, the centuries where bombs never fell on us, battles weren't fought in our cities, armies never marched across our fields. Then, one brief paroxysm of violent bloodletting and we unhesitatingly turned away from everything that made us who we were, and we demanded not a higher set of national ideals, but that instead that our leaders squander hundreds of years of freedom, justice and liberty to try to reduce our individual level of risk even if just a little bit.It makes me very sad, and not a little angry mikey

Wikipedia on the 'good dinkum auisse' (is that what the leader of our Federal opposition suggested Islamics might be?) Faid Mohammad. Got the last three letters of his name correct."Death Series DVDsIn 2007, the Australian Federal Police investigated whether 16 DVDs of Mohammed's sermons, called the Death Series, broke laws against sedition, racial vilification, and inciting violence and terrorism.[1][5] The DVDs came to public attention when they were featured in the documentary Undercover Mosque, which aired on Britain's Channel 4; the DVDs were being sold by children in the parking lot of a Birmingham mosque.[edit]Other lecturesIn the documentary, he says of non-Muslims, in his 'Signs of the Hour' speech', in one DVD, Mohammed said that children should be encouraged to become jihadists: "We want to have children and offer them as soldiers defending Islam... Teach them this: there is nothing more beloved to me than wanting to die as a mujahid. Put in their soft, tender hearts the zeal of jihad and a love of martyrdom." [1] Elsewhere, he said, "Jews are pigs that will be killed at the end of the world". [4] He also said concerning Jews, "They have got the most extreme racial pride in them. They say that every single non-Jew is a slave created to serve the Jews ... Their time will come like every other evil person's time will come." [6]He has since apologized in an interview for referring to

Jews as pigs, and said that his reference to jihad was misunderstood.[5][edit]Call for beheadingIt became known in September 2010 that in an Internet conference, Mohammad incited Muslim followers in the Netherlands to behead the Dutch politician Geert Wilders, the reason being that those who insult the teachings of Islam must be killed.[7][8] The Dutch newspaper De Telegraaf released an excerpt of the talk.[9]"From: THE Australian, by: Cameron Stewart. ".....They lived in Cambridge, Massachusetts, and their family had fled the Chechen civil war for Kazakhstan and appeared to have been granted asylum in the US. Tamerlan was reported to have been killed by explosives on his body, suggesting he may have detonated a suicide vest."I don't have a single American friend, I don't understand them," he recently posted on his website.On his YouTube page he posted religious videos, including a video of Feiz Mohammad, a fundamentalist Australian Muslim preacher who rails against" End THE AUSTRALIAN excerpt. Australia, by opening its arms to Islam, is entering upon the obvious and predictable outcome that Australia is now linked to terrorism. Of course, by opening its arms to vice and debauchery it had already lined itself up to be a channel for this extension of inhumane conduct. Kick at marriage, kick at decency, kick out children's moral protection, kick out women's moral safeguards, fake and deceive by fancy dress, try to swing freedom of the individual off the floor; bring in the brothel keepers, drum out the Owner and Creator of the Establishment. Dance all night with the Devil – no-one will stop us – but the Piper always demands his fee – in full, no mercy. Phil

... One reason that Israel doesn't have a US-style ctoitstunion is that Emergency never far away.The situation has not become more peaceful or less of an emergency since British colonial rule, so the detention rule is as justified now as it was then.As a leader of a hard-line terrorist group, who was even arrested by the PA, the chances of him being actually innocent are microscopic.Civil rights are normally applied to the citizens of a democratic state. Adnan is not a citizen of Israel, he is more like a POW, except that he is an illegal combatant. Adnan would not accept Israeli citizenship.Even so, Israel has several legal rights to control Gaza. One being the right to self-defense. Another being the sovereign rights given by the Palestine Mandate.The situation is so complex, it's a mess. But it would still be an error to use peacetime rules for a warlike situation.
